Basic Top-Level Menu

Relates To

THEME PRESS

Basic Top-Level Menu

Prompt
The basic top-level menu consists of only one set of links with no drop-down list.

Definition
A basic top-level menu is a menu without any drop-down items or menu panels. Each top-level menu item is a direct link to a page. Top-level menus are set up in the Architect Tab of the Theme Press Designer.

Info
Related

- Building a Basic Top-Level Menu
- Menu Tab