Scheduled Window

Relates To

CONTENT FLOW

Scheduled Window

Prompt
The span of time during which a scheduled page is released to all viewers.

Definition
A scheduled window begins with a release time and optionally ends with a hide time. Between these times, the page is viewable by all with view permissions in the space.

Savvy space administrators can use the scheduled window to advantageously plan and manage the visibility of page content throughout the year.

Info
Related

- Release Time
- Hide Time
- Scheduling a Page