Publisher

Relates To

CONTENT FLOW

Publisher

Prompt
Tool that updates page permissions to control visibility of page versions.

Definition
The Publisher is the Content Flow tool that presents published versions (of pages and blog posts) to non-workflow participants, and draft versions to workflow participants. By controlling page restrictions, the Publisher updates the visibility of pages, thereby ensuring that only the right people see the right content.

Info
Related

- Scheduled Page
- Scheduling and Page Restrictions
- Scheduling and Workflow Implications