Theme Press Footer

Relates To

THEME PRESS

Theme Press Footer

Prompt
Bottommost portion of the page canvas area.

Definition
The Brikit Theme Press footer is the area that spans across the bottom of the page canvas, directly below all body content.

It is managed by a footer architect page and occupies the footer layer in a theme.

The footer can be used to hold graphics, special links, copyright information, legal content, or other features.

Info
Related

- Architect Pages
- Setting an Architect Page as the Site Default
- Creating a Footer Architect Page